Appendix

Response to Item 10(a)

Dr. Giulia Alasania is a citizen of the Democratic Republic of Georgia and the mother of Mr. Mikheil Saakashvili. Mr. Saakashvili served as President of Georgia from 2004-2013 and he is currently incarcerated as a political prisoner in Georgia. Mr. Saakashvili left Georgia in late 2013 and became a citizen of Ukraine shortly thereafter. Because of his reputation as a stalwart against Russian aggression and corruption, Mr. Saakashvili was appointed to the Ukrainian government early in 2015, and for two years he served as the governor of the region of Odessa. Since May 2020, he has served as a member of Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky's government, as the Chair of the Executive Committee of the National Reform Council.

Mr. Saakashvili founded the United National Movement (UNM) political party, which is today the largest Georgian opposition political party. UNM was the leading party in the United Opposition, a coalition that challenged the ruling Georgian Dream Party in the presidential election of 2018 and the parliamentary election of 2020.

Shortly after Mr. Saakashvili left Georgia in late 2013, the Georgian Dream Party-led government brought a number of meritless, politically-motivated criminal charges against Mr. Saakashvili, upon which he was tried and convicted in absentia. Despite being in exile for nearly eight years, Mr. Saakashvili has remained an influential figure in Georgian politics. When he returned to Georgia in October 2021 to support fair and democratic elections, Mr. Saakashvili was immediately arrested and imprisoned. He has been subjected to cruel and inhuman treatment at the hands of Georgian authorities, treatment that in the eyes of several independent observers amounts to torture in violation of multiple international human rights laws and norms. Mr. Saakashvili's physical and mental condition under incarceration has gravely deteriorated over the past year in confinement and he urgently needs advanced medical treatment in a modern facility in the United States or Western Europe.
